

PROGRAMME PREVIEW

September 28, 2010

- 7:30 p.m. -

Bendale Library

“WHAT HAPPENED TO PORT UNION?”

Guest Speaker: David Bowring

(Author of an unpublished work, “FOR LOVE OF THE ROUGE”)

Port Union, also known as Centennial Scarborough is a neighbourhood located in Scarborough, Ontario, bounded by Kingston Road to the north, Port Union Road to the east, the Lake Ontario shoreline to the south, and Highland Creek to the west.

David Bowring will take you on a journey back to a Village of Port Union from the 1848 formation of the Scarborough, Markham & Pickering Wharf Company, bustling with ship-building, commercial fishing, two hotels, a commercial wharf, stone-hookers, the railroad and the small businesses to the Port Union we know today.

We thank all our members and visitors for supporting The Scarborough Historical Society and the programmes we bring to the community. Please refer to our website for upcoming events. Please feel free to bring a guest, chat with our members and enjoy the refreshments following the programme.

Have a safe summer!